LivingDance~LivingMusic™ workshops ~ Monthly workshops (Rochester); extended retreats (US, Europe, Central America, the Mid East, and Asia).

LivingDance~LivingMusic™ – attests to the healing inherent in dance and music. Originally developed for people with eating disorders, it addresses a range of prevailing concerns including the positive desires to grow and create. No dance experience is necessary.

LivingDance™ synthesizes knowledge of human development, creativity, dance, and neurobiology, works with natural elements of dance that cut across all styles, and powers the song and response of LivingMusic™. What emerges is up to you and the collective unconscious.

“You probably had the skills of LivingDance before kindergarten, but all too often, they submerge. LivingDance—in consort with music—helps you reclaim them, tapping your creativity and innate capacity to heal.”
