Rochester, N.Y. -- A local dance studio is celebrating 25 years of dance.

Kinections on University Ave. offers dance and movement therapy and graduate level courses.

The studio held a party Sunday to celebrate its anniversary. "We provide opportunities for people to not only get connected to themselves but to find new ways of being in the world so they can feel more confident and more creative...both," said owner Danielle Fraenkel.

Kinections is run by Fraenkel and her husband.
